

Junior Garden Club Formed

Junior Greenthumbers will hold their first meeting Saturday, Oct. 13, at the home of Mrs. Earl Hubacek, 5608 Rockview Drive at 1 p.m.

This announcement was made at the gadget party of the adult Greenthumbers Club, Friday, at the home of Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer.

Mrs. Bert Pulver attended the party as a guest. Greenthumbers present were Mmes. David Sheppard, William Greenwood, Al Kostick, John

CANADA GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh W. Bowman, 25516 Oak St., Lomita, are expecting Mrs. Bowman's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Tilley and three children, from Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, for a two weeks' stay.

Honored at Bon Voyage

Mrs. Larry Gremminger, the former Loretta Page, who leaves Oct. 15 to join her husband in Guam, was the honoree at a bon voyage party Monday evening, given by Mrs. Charles Bingham, at her home, 23629 Arlington Ave.

Pink and black were used in decorating. The dining table was centered with a pink and black cake holding a replica of a ship.

Mrs. Gremminger was presented with a shower of going-away gifts.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bingham and the co-hostess, Mrs. Gary Burkett.

Guests attending were Mmes. Leroy Lish, Jack Miller, Kenneth Williams, Roy Fayfield, Robert Gruvett, and Misses Donna Haynes, Jean Hussey and June Ziliox.

JOHN KLUGS MAKE EXTENSIVE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. John Klug, 5708 Palos Verdes Blvd. and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kanagy of West Los Angeles returned last Saturday from a week's trip through northern California.

They traveled up the coast to Santa Barbara, Morro Bay, Big Sur National Park, Carmel, Monterey, Santa Cruz and Los Gatos. From there they went to San Mateo, Millbrae and into San Francisco to have dinner at Fisherman's Wharf.

Across the bridge to Oakland they traveled to Marysville, Lake Almanar, and to Mt. Lassen going up the peak to 8,512 feet, to Emerald Lake which was surrounded with 10 feet of snow. Their next stops were Redding, Chico, Yuba City and into Sacramento.

They visited Sutter's Fort and the Mother Lode country around Stockton with next next interest. They visited several ghost towns, Angel's Camp, Columbia and Knight's Ferry.

The travelers then went to Modesto and to Lake Yosemite in the vicinity of Merced, driving south to Fresno visiting the underground gardens before starting their homeward trip.

RIVIERA BRIDGE CLUB TO MEET

Hollywood Riviera Bridge Club, under the direction of Stanley Perry, will hold its second meeting of the new series on Friday evening, Oct. 12, at 8 p.m.

On the second Friday of each month, September through June, members will meet in groups at 8 p.m. at individual homes to play bridge and at the same time become better acquainted with their bridge-playing neighbors.

There are still openings and interested persons may call Stanley Perry or Mrs. William Parker.
